

I support this proposed rule change. As stated by other commenters, what is the purpose of call areas if newly assigned calls are assigned outside of those areas. I myself have been denied a 1x2 vanity call 3 times with one of those assigned to a applicant outside of the assigned call area. Add insult to injury, that same applicant already had a 1x2 call in his own call area. Sorry, but that's just not right.